

Help make your area unconventional gas free!

- Display this poster in your window and tell your friends and neighbours about the risks
- Pass on the information sheet
- Write to your local and community councillors
- Object to planning applications
- If you own land, don't allow unconventional gas extraction on it.

For more information contact your local campaign organiser:

