Signature of candidate stating willingness to serve:

Date:

13/05/2024

Short statement giving reasons for wishing to participate in FoES Board and skills and expertise that the candidate will bring:

Ian has taken a passionate interest in environmental and sustainability issues from a young age. He studied at Edinburgh University and was actively involved in green politics during his time there. He then worked as a regulatory and environmental economist demonstrating the social and environmental benefits of rail over other forms of transport. Since then he has undertaken a number of senior economics and leadership roles including Director of Communications and Senior Partner, Transmission at Ofgem. He brings senior leadership, strategic change and communications skills as well as specific expertise in economics, rail, energy networks and infrastructure funding.
